The company has successfully moved to a GREEN COMPANY.Â This equates to all scripts and documents only be providing electronically.Â Printed Hard Copies and Folders will no longer be provided.Â Staff / contractors may print out the documents/scripts for their own use and at their own expense.Â All staff who have printed the documents/scripts must maintain the safety and security of all information as confidentialy Intellectual Property Rights owned by the company and upon termination, must destroy, shred or return all printed copies to the company without delay.Â This will be effective as of today.

Scripts will be displayed and available in the most appropriate Channel on the Slack Communications Page.

If you do not have access to the channel, request permission to download the script or request permission to have access to the related channel.
