Sales / Event Staff

When can I book an event? How to check for product availability? How to work out date availability on Sales Calendar?

Most events can be booked all year around based on the products availability. Refer to Product Availability Page by clicking on this link Production Availability, Sales Production Calendar, How to use the Production Availability Page and the Sales Production Calendar to find the next best available date.

Events can be booked any day and any time 365 days year 24 hours day, when the customer requests it, depending on availability and the Product Availability.

Events can be booked in the following locations:

1. All of Australia (including all states and territories and rural country areas)
2. Hong Kong, China, Japan, Thailand
3. India (from September 2016)
4. All of the USA (including the islands of the Americas) (excluding Puertor-rico and the Carribean)
5. All of Cananda
6. All of the United Kingdom
7. All of Ireland
