How much do we charge for additional tickets on the day?

Additional tickets on the day of the event is charged at the RRP of the show + a 25% administration fee of the total amount of the additional tickets on the day.

It is recommended to request additional tickets 7-14 days before the event to avoid the administration fee.

The administration fee is charged due to the extra work our event staff are required to do to ensure the production team have enough equipment / props / for the show booked. Having additional persons attending on the day puts undue stress on our production team and staff.
